

The HERBERT H.
CARNEGIE

Community Commitment Program

Named in honour of the legendary IG Wealth Management Consultant Herbert H. Carnegie, this prestigious designation recognizes Consultants, Associate Consultants and Directors who demonstrate a strong commitment to community service, along with a focus on business excellence and client service.

Mr. Carnegie combined a lifetime passion for the care and concern of young people, together with the highest principles of business excellence during his 32-year career with IG Wealth Management. His 'Future Aces' program encourages youth in their development of ethical behavior and the attainment of the highest level of education achievement within their capabilities. Widely respected and admired, Mr. Carnegie received extensive community and government recognition for his example of personal leadership in the art of achieving business success and giving selflessly to others.

